GOOD AFTERNOON, QCC!!!

August was a busy month for QCC with some really cool events! With MINI on the Mack, The M&M Florence Freedom Drive, and the Luau, if you weren't hanging out with Queen City Coopers, you missed a LOT!! Thanks again to everyone who worked so hard to create and plan these events, and to all who attended to make them a success!

As we enter Fall and the prime Motoring season begins to wind down, we'll be packing all we can into the months to come, starting with the September Motor-In. John and Nancy Cusick host on September 7th as we return to The Coop, 5227 Mississippi Dr. in Fairfield! It's always a great time as we relax and enjoy the more moderate temps and some grilled fare including burgers, dogs, and some of your picnic faves with friends. The September Motor-In also opens the nomination process for QCC officers, so if you've always wanted to get more involved in serving the club, here's your chance! Nominations remain open through the end of the October Motor-In, with election of officers at the November meeting.

September 22nd takes on a relaxed drive back to Moscow, Ohio to Joe's (the Rolls Royce guy) house for a mid-day picnic! The view of the Ohio River will be a fantastic backdrop for a late lunch as we watch the boats go by! Rob and Carol Rauch say bring a chair and/or blanket and a basket of your favorite goodies to The Barn, 6193 Cook Rd., Milford, and they'll get the drive started at 2:15 (rain or shine).

And on September 28th, you can join a couple of old firemen for a fun historic tour of the CINCINNATI FIRE MUSEUM! The museum chronicles the history of the Cincinnati Fire Department, America's 1st fully paid professional fire department. Established in 1853, the CFD has led the way in innovation and training for 166 years! Ron Gregory will be leading the tour with his unique insights from someone who's not only donned the gear and kicked in the doors, but also donned a parachute and fought wild land fires as a smoke jumper! And as a bonus, we'll be following up the museum tour with... THE FIREBALL RUN!! In the spirit of the Cannonball Run, you'll have an opportunity to test your navigation and driving skills against your fellow QCC members on a 60 to 100 mile drive to a classified destination somewhere in the Tri-State area. Once given the destination, your time will be recorded on departure and arrival, and the team (driver or driver/navigator) with the lowest elapsed time wins! And of course, it wouldn't be nearly as much fun without a little twist or two... THIS EVENT'S GONNA BE HOT!!!

And DON'T YOU DARE MISS THE FALL SPIRITS DRIVE!!! Coming up on October 12th, Ed and Vel Fenker will be taking us on another spirited drive through the back roads of Kentucky horse country to Prodigy Vineyards, where we'll be tasting some of their award winning wines!!

Fall is definitely upon us, so let's take advantage of the more comfortable temperatures and absolutely PACK these unique QCC events!! Hoping to see you all during the month of September, but in the meantime...

CHEERS!!! and MOTOR ON!!!

Tom

The Great Ice Cream Run 7

You Scream, I scream, we all scream for ICE CREAM!

If you love ice cream you need to join the Great Ice Cream Run that is held every other year. This year's event was held from July 27 to August 1. Jak and Dusdee are great host's and have everything timed down to how long we were able to stop at the ice cream stops. The Cusick's and Fenker's drove from Staunton VA to St Ignace MI, with stops in Charleston WV, Columbus OH, Toledo OH, South Haven MI then on to St Ignace. We ate at Wright's Dairy Rite, The Split Banana, King Tut Drive Inn, Ellens Homemade Ice Cream, McHappy's Donuts, Handel's Homemade Ice cream, Dietsch Brothers, Sweetwater's Donut Mill, Sherman Dairy Bar, A & W Drive-In, Hometown Creamery, MOOmers Homemade Ice Cream. Are you full yet?? We also had a tailgate ice cream bar with Graeter's. Here is a small list of the ice creams we sampled: Lavender, Coconut, Raspberry Chocolate Chip, Apricot Sorbet, Peach, Chocolate Chip Malt, Spouse Like a House, Pecan Praline, Black Raspberry Chunk, Moose Tracks, Coconut Cream Pie, Mackinac Island Fudge, Blueberry Pie, Banana, Black Walnut, Strawberry Marshmallow, Mango Sorbet, Cherry Fudge, Jolted Cow, plus many more that I did not keep track of. Some businesses stayed open late for us or opened early, we had great weather and wonderful traveling companions.
