WELCOME TO NOVEMBER, QCC!!!!

Well folks, here we are about to put 2019 behind us. ANOTHER Goats In Trees calendar is about to find its way to the archive, the brilliant colors have really begun to emerge, and the blue skies we've taken for granted for the past six months or so are beginning to show a hint of grey. Even though we've been lucky enough to enjoy some unseasonably warm weather thus far, we know what the near future holds for the Ohio Valley. Some of our favorite twisties have gotten a bit more hazardous as the leaves fall, and we'll soon again be dodging the potholes that it seems like were only recently repaired. Jeans, long sleeves and light jackets are now the norm, soon to be replaced by hoodies, long johns, parkas, snow boots, wool socks, those funny-looking furry hats with the earflaps.... NO WAY!!! I'M NOT READY FOR THIS YET!!! Didn't I mention a couple of months ago that "Key West Coopers" has a certain ring to it? I'm sure we could be at Mile Zero in about 18 hours. Who's with me? But as often happens, I digress...

October was a pretty great month for Queen City Coopers, starting with the Fall Spirits Drive through Kentucky horse country to Prodigy Vineyards. As always, Ed and Vel led us on a spectacular route on some fantastic back country roads. And if you've never driven Ky Route 227, you owe it to yourself to check it out! It's 23 miles of well-maintained two-lane highway MADE FOR MINIs!! Prodigy Vineyards was absolutely beautiful, with a gorgeous bar and tasting room, free roaming horses, cows, and great scenery. All in all, a fantastic day of motoring with some great people, followed by a perfectly turned out steak at Cattlemen's Steakhouse in Frankfort... IT JUST DOESN'T GET ANY BETTER!!!

And as the Motoring season winds down, there was no better way to kick off our Fall than with the QCC Halloween Party. It's always great to see how some dedicated individuals can pull together to create a truly enjoyable event! Thanks, as always, to Brittany Schlemmer at Cincinnati MINI for allowing us to move in and take over the upper showroom for the afternoon and evening and for some great prizes for our costume contest! And a special thank you to Jon Grayson for going above and beyond as he stayed with us through the event! And those dedicated individuals I mentioned before?... HUGE thanks go to Hector and Gina Maldonado and Wyn Jones for Jumping in and putting together a really fun venue for the party and to Nancy Cusick for putting together the food!! And it was amazing to watch everyone pitch in at the end of the party to break down, pack up, and load out! You all are the backbone of the club and nothing happens

Join us for our November events

11/2: Soups, Chowders, Chilis & Stews

without you. Again, my most sincere thanks to all... And have I mentioned the COSTUMES?!! You folks REALLY stepped up your costume game this year! When I said "from ghoulish to foolish" you all really took it to heart and produced some of the best costumes EVER! (see the party photos posted in this issue) I don't think I'll be going out on a limb to promise that next year's party will be even bigger and better!!

As we slip a bit further into the Fall rabbit hole, QCC kicks off November with another one of our most popular annual events, SOUPS, STEWS, CHILIS, AND CHOWDERS, Saturday November 2nd @ 4pm at the Anderson Township Heritage Center, 890 Eight Mile Rd., Cincinnati 45255!! Join us for the November Motor-In and bring a steaming pot, crock, or vat of your favorite cold-weather comfort food to share and enjoy a relaxed evening in one of our new favorite venues! And the November Motor-In is also election night for our 2020 QCC officers. 4 of the 5 2019 officers are running unopposed, so there will be a balloted runoff election for the position of Events Coordinator between Alexander Olveda and Craig Schlesinger. Make your voice heard as we complete the Executive Board for 2020!

Be sure to keep an eye on the Queen City Coopers website and facebook pages as we continue to firm up our 2019 holiday season schedule! It's been a really great year, but QCC's not done yet!! There's still plenty more to come in 2019, and I'm looking forward to sharing it all with you! In the meantime...

CHEERS!! and MOTOR ON!!!

Soups, Chowders, Chilis & Stews

Saturday November 2, 2019 4:00 pm

The Anderson Township Heritage Center
890 Eight Mile Rd. 45255

Bring your favorite homemade soup, chili, stew or chowder for everyone to share. There is plenty of electric to keep your creations hot. Also in addition you are welcome to bring a desert to share. Eat as little or as much as you like, it is all fantastic. Time to show off your homemade recipes.

This is also our Monthly Motor In, finishing up 2019 "year in review".
This is election day for 2020 officers.

CELEBRATING 60 YEARS OF FUN TO DRIVE.

Rob Bax competed in the B-Spec class at the Sports Car Club of America's Runoffs (road racing national championship) on October 13 at Virginia International Raceway. He qualified 8th, ran a clean race and finished 7th – making Cincinnati's Queen City Coopers proud. He participated in a pre-event practice day on Sunday, October 6, then the three qualifying days October 8, 9 and 10. His car ran well – none of his previous engine issues plagued him.

Note: pictures are from Jeff Loewe – jlofoto – one on the race track at speed, one with Doris on the false grid. If you can contact Rob or Doris, they might be able to fill in more details of his week.
